Objectives

- To learn the description of 2, 3 and 4 units (rakahs) of prayer (salah)
- To memorize the most important words of prayer (salah)

- Salah* - the Arabic word to denote a direct connection between the believer and Allah. More specifically, in Islam it refers to the formal five daily prayers and is the most important form of worship.
- Rakah* - unit of prayer.
- Qiblah*: The direction one faces during the formal prayers.
- Fajr, Dhuhr, Asr, Maghrib, Isha* – the names of five daily prayers in Islam.
- Tashahhud – the saying “At-tahiy-yatu lil-lahi.... Muhammadan 'abduhu wa rasuluh.” in the sitting position of the prayer.
- Takbir* – uttering “Allahu Akbar”.
- Fatihah* – the opening chapter of the Quran that is recited in every rakah of prayer.

The Prayer

The Prophet has commanded us:

“Pray as you have seen me praying.” (Saheeh Al-Bukhari)

The following is a simple procedure for performing the formal prayer for beginners. You will learn more, later.

Also, you may find Muslims praying slightly differently. There is no reason to worry. Do not focus on little details at this moment. Learn the basics first as presented over here.

Description of a 2 unit prayer (like the Fajr prayer)

1. Standing straight

·Stand straight facing the qiblah (direction of prayer).

2. The Opening Takbir (pronouncing of Allahu Akbar)

·Raise both hands up to the earlobes or shoulders and say:

Allahu akbar
‘Allah is the Greatest.’

Figure 1

- Place your right hand and arm on top of your left and place them both on your chest.
- Do not look around. Keep your eyes focused on the spot where you will prostrate.

Figure 2

3. Seeking refuge with Allah from Satan

·Say:

A'udhu billahi minash-shaytaanir-rajeem
'I seek refuge with Allah from the Evil One.'

4. Reciting Surah al-Fatihah,

Begin with saying:

Bismilla-hir-rahma-nir-raheem
'I begin with the Name of Allah, the Most Merciful, the Bestower of Mercy.'

·Then recite Surah al-Fatihah.

Alhamdu lil-lahi rab-bil 'alameen
'Praise be to Allah, Lord of the Worlds.'

Ar-rahma-nir-raheem
The Most Merciful, the Bestower of Mercy.

Maliki yawmid-deen
Master of the Day of Judgment.

Iyyaka na'budu wa iyyaka nasta'een
You alone we worship; You alone we ask for help.

Ihdinas-siratal mostaqeem
Show us the straight path.

Siratal-lazeena an'amta 'alayhim
The path of those whom You have favored;

ghayril maghdubi 'alayhim
Not the (path) of those who earn Your anger

wa-lad-daa-leen
nor of those who go astray.'

·Finally, say:

Aameen
O Allah, please accept.

5. Bowing

- Raise your hands up to the earlobes or shoulders (as you did in 2. The Opening Takbeer) and say:

Allahu akbar
'Allah is the Greatest.'

Figure 3

- With your back straight, bend in the bowing posture as shown in the picture, and repeat in a low voice three times:

Subhana rabbi-yaal-'azeem
'How Perfect is my Lord, the Supreme!'

6. Standing up from the bowing posture

- As in the picture, stand up straight from the bowing posture till your back comes to its normal upright position.
- While rising up from the bowing posture, raise your hands up to the earlobes or shoulders again and say:

Figure 4

Sami' allahu liman hamidah
'Allah listens to the one who praises Him.'

- Then, say:

Rab-bana wa lakal hamd
Our Lord, and to You be all Praise.'

7. First prostration

- Then go down on the ground to prostrate. While going down, say:

Allahu akbar
'Allah is the Greatest.'

Figure 5

- Your forehead, nose, both hands, knees, and feet should be touching the ground while in prostration. If doing it for the first time, it may be slightly uncomfortable, depending on how flexible your body is! You will get used to it pretty soon. Remember the person is closest to Allah in prostration.
- Repeat in a low voice three times:

Subhana rabbi-yal-a'laa
'How Perfect is my Lord, the Most High.'

8. Sitting between the prostrations

- Now you will sit up from the first prostration. Sit all the way back till you sit in a comfortable position. While rising up to sit, say:

Figure 6

Allahu akbar
'Allah is the Greatest.'

- Repeat, while sitting between the two prostrations:

Rab-bigh-fir lee
'O my Lord! Forgive me.'

9. Second prostration

- Then go again to the position of prostration. While going down to prostrate, say:

Allahu akbar
'Allah is the Greatest.'

- Perform this prostration like the first. Repeat in a low voice three times:

Subhana rabbi-yal-a'laa
'How Perfect is my Lord, the Most High.'

- Steps 4-9 are called one unit or rakah in Arabic.

10. Next unit of prayer (rakah)

- Stand up straight again for the next unit of prayer. While standing up say:

Allahu akbar
'Allah is the Greatest.'

- Repeat steps 4 to 9 again.

11. Recitation in the sitting position (Tashahud)

·Then come to the sitting position. While sitting up say:

wa 'ala aali Muhammad
and on the family of Muhammad

Kama sal-layta 'ala Ibraheem
